

MASA CODE OF CONDUCT

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR PLAYERS

- Punctuality
- Make a committed effort to attend all practices and games
- Respect for coaches, officials, their team mates and opposing teams
- Strive to improve and learn new skills
- Work hard for yourself, but also for your team. Softball is a team sport and it takes a group effort to succeed
- Have fun!

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR PARENTS

- Remember that your child plays for his/her enjoyment, not for yours
- To always encourage and not to yell at or ridicule their child for a missed play or lost game
- Teach that doing one's best is as important as winning so your child will never feel defeated over the outcome of a game
- Show respect for the team's opponent's and game officials
- Show respect to the volunteers who give their time to provide your child with a meaningful softball experience
- Volunteer

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR COACHES

- Committed to the growth and development of the team
- Provide each participant a fair opportunity
- Act in the best interest of the players development as a whole person
- Endeavor to show and develop team respect for all opposing players, coaches and officials
- Maintain the highest level of personal conduct and sportsmanship required by MASA & Twin City Angels.
